

Mary Ann Hood

Senior Vice President of Human Resources, EEO Officer, Director of the Office of Diversity and Inclusion Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia

Mary Ann Hood, Senior Vice President and EEO officer at the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia oversees the bank's human resources department, which includes the medical unit, food services, and the electronic Professional Education Program (ePEP) for Federal Reserve System employees. In 2011, Ms. Hood was named Director of the Office of Minority and Women Inclusion for the Philadelphia Reserve Bank. This office has primary responsibility for workforce and supplier diversity as well as financial education and outreach. Mary Ann has been with the Federal Reserve System since 1982 when she started working in bank operations for the New Orleans Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta and then for the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, Memphis Branch. She joined the Philadelphia Fed in 1990 and assumed responsibility for Human Resources and EEO in 2004.

Mary Ann Hood is a graduate of Hood College, Frederick, MD, and holds a Master's degree in Human Resource Development from Villanova University. She is a member of the Federal Reserve System's Subcommittee on Human Resources. She co-chairs the Philadelphia Fed's volunteerism initiative, PhillyFedCares, and was appointed to the Early Learning Investment Commission in 2010. She is married with three children and lives in Wayne. _