

Kevin Schreiber
President & CEO
York County Economic Alliance

Kevin Schreiber began his tenure as President & CEO of the York County Economic Alliance on December 1, 2016. Prior to his position at the alliance, Kevin served two terms as state representative for the 95th Legislative District, in York County. He and his wife are residents of the city of York along with their cavalier spaniel, Lucy.

Kevin earned his Bachelor's Degree in Public Relations from York College and his Master's Degree in Public Administration from Penn State University.

As State Representative, his legislative priorities included advocating for the best educational opportunities for all children in the commonwealth to include Pre-K and early learning education through collegiate and higher education, improving public safety, government reform, equal rights and the environment.

Prior to serving as State Representative, Kevin worked for the City of York. While serving as Community and Economic Development Director for the city, Kevin oversaw an annual budget of over $6 million, and assisted in over $150 million in economic and community development advances.

With the City of York, Kevin's focus was on job creation in York County by working hand-in-hand with start-up businesses, innovative entrepreneurs and business leaders, to improve the local economy and local neighborhoods.

With having roots in Economic Development, Kevin's appointment as President & CEO of the alliance was a natural career change. His priorities as President & CEO of the York County Economic Alliance include leading the organization to become the Chief Advocate across York County for economic growth and development, to create a prosperous York County.

Kevin has worked with Habitat for Humanity, the YWCA, the YMCA, Crispus

Attucks Organization, York Housing Authority, private rehabbers, homeowners and many others to bring vacant buildings to better use in neighborhoods in need of change. He serves or has served on the Board of Directors for Downtown Inc., Team PA, York County Convention and Visitors Bureau, Partnership for Economic Development in York County, and YorkArts.

Kevin looks forward to playing an active role in securing a bright future for both the York Community and the York County Economic Alliance.
