

Alice G. Lindenauer, GPHR
Managing Director, Global Human Resources
Hamilton Lane

Alice Lindenauer leads Hamilton Lane's Global Human Resource function where she is responsible for the strategic workforce and employee life cycle functions. She began her career in the financial analysis and management areas for two asset management firms. She shifted careers and transitioned into the human resources discipline when she created the workforce development function for SEI Investments.

Previous to joining SEI in 1994, she was Director of Financial Analysis for Liberty Financial Services and Liberty Securities of Boston, a position she assumed in 1989 after holding the title of First Line Financial Manager for the Materials Management and Product Marketing Divisions of Bell Atlantic in Washington, DC.

Ms. Lindenauer actively promotes and advocates for quality early care and learning as a current board member of the Delaware Valley Association for the Education of Young Children (DVACCC), and past board member of the Delaware Valley Child Care Council, as well as a participant in Child Care Matters. She established the SEI Family Center, an award-winning childcare center subsidized by SEI, and her efforts contributed to the company being named to FORTUNE Magazine's 100 Best Places to Work list 5 years in a row, Computer World's Best Place to Work, Best Mid-Sized Company to Work for in Philadelphia (Philadelphia Magazine), Best Employer for Working Parents (DVACCC), Best Employer (Maternity Care Coalition), and Corporate Champion for Child Care (TLLCCF). She has been recognized as a "Hardest Working Mom" (PA Partnerships for Children) and serves on the Early Learning Investment Commission.

Alice Lindenauer is a graduate of the University of Delaware and received her M.B.A. from The George Washington University. A native of Brooklyn, NY, she resides in Lafayette Hill with her husband of 23 years, two daughters, and a pair of Brittany Spaniels.
