

Gerald J. Maginnis
Retired Office Managing Partner, Philadelphia Office
KPMG LLP

Jerry Maginnis was the Office Managing Partner (OMP) for KPMG's Philadelphia office. His responsibilities included helping lead the growth and success of the firm's audit, tax, and advisory practices in Philadelphia. He also ensured that clients receive exceptional service from the firm, and that the office's Partners and employees view KPMG as a great place to work and build their career.

In his OMP role, Mr. Maginnis coordinated KPMG's community involvement activities and ensures their professionals are giving back to their communities. He also championed the firm's diversity initiatives in Philadelphia and plays a key client relationship role in the office's largest accounts. He has nearly 34 years of experience and has served as the Audit Engagement Partner on public and privately held companies in a variety of industries. Previously, he served as the Partner in charge of KPMG's Audit Practice in PA, responsible for the audit operations of the Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburgh offices.

Mr. Maginnis is a member of the CEO Council for Growth, the boards of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Gwynedd-Mercy College, as well as the board of trustees for St. Joseph's Preparatory School. He also serves as a campaign cabinet member for the United Way of Southeastern PA and has been a member of the Early Learning Investment Commission since 2009.

Jerry Maginnis holds a B.S. in Accounting from Saint Joseph's University. He is a Certified Public Accountant in Pennsylvania and is currently serving as the President Elect of the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA). He is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the PA Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
