

Michael S. Murchie
President of Commercial Specialty Businesses
M&T Bank

Michael S. Murchie is the President of Commercial Specialty Businesses for M&T Bank; he previously served as Senior Vice President for M&T Bank Corporation and a Regional President for M&T Bank where he led M&T Bank's Pennsylvania Community Banking initiative in the central and western regions, and directed commercial banking operations in those regions.

He began his banking career with M&T Bank in Buffalo, NY, in 1991 as a commercial real estate lender. He relocated to Portland, OR, in 1996 to launch M&T Bank's commercial real estate operation in the Pacific northwest. While there, he became a founding member of the Portland Affordable Housing Trust.

In 2001, Mr. Murchie relocated to Harrisburg to lead the commercial real estate lending team in PA. In 2002, he became President of the Southern PA Region (now known as the central and western PA region).

Mr. Murchie plays an active role in a number of bank projects and initiatives. He is a member of the SmartSpend Committee, a member of the PA Manager's Loan Committee, a rotating member of the Senior Loan Committee, and the Chair of the Central PA Charitable Contributions Committee. The latter enables him to facilitate the bank's charitable initiatives within the region.

Mr. Murchie is past Chair of the Board of Directors for the Harrisburg Regional Chamber of Commerce. He also serves as Chairman of the Board for the Whitaker Center for Science and the Arts where he is past Chair of the Operations and Audit committees. He is on the Public-Private Partnership Transportation Board. He is on the DREAM Partnership Board. He has been a member of the Pennsylvania Early Learning Investment Commission since 2008.

Mike Murchie received a Master's of Business Administration with a concentration in finance from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business. He resides in Carlisle with his wife and two children.
