

Philip A. Peterson, FSA
Former Partner, Aon Hewitt
Deputy Director, ReadyNation

Philip A. Peterson is a Deputy Director specializing in early childhood pay for success strategies using social impact financing. He assists states and local jurisdictions in developing pay for success projects in the areas of early childhood education and home visiting. He brings experience in strategic planning, team building, financial economics and risk management to ReadyNation.

Phil recently joined ReadyNation after a 38-year career in human resource and employee benefit consulting where he managed various Aon practices and offices over the years and specialized in global retirement strategies, stock option valuation and human capital metrics.

Phil helped co-create with Child Care Matters, the Aon/United Way of Southeastern PA Hand-in-Hand Award for quality child care in the business community. He has also testified before the House Education Committee of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives on the importance of child care to the business community. Phil has served on the board of the Economy League of Greater Philadelphia, and on the state board of the Pennsylvania Economy League. Phil joined the Pennsylvania Early Learning Investment Commission in 2008, and was the co-chair of the Advisory Board of ReadyNation.

Phil earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics at Dickinson College. He is a fellow of the Society of Actuaries and an Enrolled Actuary.
