

K. Scott Roy, J.D.
Vice President of Government & Regulatory Affairs
Range Resources Corporation

K. Scott Roy is the Vice President of Government and Regulatory Affairs at Range Resources Corporation where he leads and manages national corporate initiatives and directs a diverse, creative and technical group. Scott works closely with regulatory and environmental agencies across Pennsylvania to assist in the shaping of new legislation. Additionally, he provides advice and counsel to a number of industry organizations such as the American Natural Gas Association, the Marcellus Shale Coalition, and the Institution for Gas Drilling Excellence. He is a member of the Allegheny Conference on Community Development, Pennsylvania Early Learning Investment Commission, the Greater Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, Ducks Unlimited and the Ruffed Grouse Society.

Prior to joining Range Resources, Scott served the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in multiple executive capacities during the administration of Governor Tom Ridge; he served as Executive Deputy Chief of Staff for Governor Edward Rendell, was one of his top advisors, oversaw the Office of General Counsel and served as the Governor's liaison to a variety of regulatory and environmental agencies. Scott also served as Chief Counsel on the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole; his total experience in service to the Commonwealth spans nearly twenty years.

A western Pennsylvania native, Scott earned his bachelor's degree from Allegheny College and his Juris Doctorate from the Dickinson School of Law at Penn State University. Scott is an avid outdoorsman and enjoys hunting and fishing activities year round. Scott and his family reside in Wexford, Pennsylvania.
