

Jarrold D. Shaw
Partner
McGuire Woods LLP

Jarrold Shaw is a Partner at McGuire Woods LLC where he represents clients in complex commercial and class action litigation in numerous state and federal courts across the country as well as numerous mediations and arbitrations. He has significant experience counseling clients in the financial services industry, particularly lines of businesses like wealth management, corporate and personal trust, banking, credit card and life insurance. He also represents financial services companies and other clients in consumer class and individual actions asserting privacy, credit reporting, debt collection and unfair business practices claims, as well as Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) cases. Jarrold also maintains a broad complex commercial litigation practice representing a wide range of industries. Through this practice, Jarrold has handled complex business disputes, including both the defense and prosecution of high-stakes restrictive covenant matters relating to the theft of trade secrets and proprietary information, breach of fiduciary duty claims, unfair trade practices, RICO claims and class action litigation. He also routinely advises clients with respect to e-discovery issues.

In 2013, Jarrold was selected as a "Lawyers on the Fast Track" by The Legal Intelligencer and is a member of the PA Early Learning Investment Commission. Jarrold holds a BS from Penn State University and received his law degree from Villanova University. Jarrold is also a graduate of Leadership Pittsburgh XXXIII. He resides in Pittsburgh's South Hills with his wife Jodie and their two young children.
