

Steven T. Wray
Executive Director
Economy League of Greater Philadelphia

Steve Wray was named Executive Director of the Economy League of Greater Philadelphia in 2006. He reports to a board of more than 70 senior, private-sector leaders from the region's leading companies and institutions. As Deputy Director from 1995 to 2006, he managed the Economy League's research projects and staff and was Project Director of IssuesPA, an award-winning public engagement project that combined research and analysis, the internet, and televised events in a first-of-its-kind effort to increase coverage and attention to statewide issues. Prior to the Economy League, Mr. Wray served as Policy Director to Lt. Gov. Mark Singel, associate with Jones Lang Wootton USA in New York, and consultant to the Executive Director of the Allegheny Conference on Community Development in Pittsburgh.

In 2010, Mr. Wray was appointed Managing Director of the Pennsylvania Economy League, Inc., the corporate home of the Economy League of Greater Philadelphia. As Managing Director, he reports to a 15-person board of directors and oversees statewide activities and operations.

Mr. Wray is a trustee of the Health Care Improvement Foundation and is a member of the board and executive committee of the Philadelphia Convention & Visitors Bureau. He is a 2008 Ford Foundation Fellow of the American Chamber of Commerce Executives' Regional Sustainable Development program. In 2002, he was named to the Philadelphia Business Journal's "40 under 40" leadership list, and in 2010, he was appointed to serve on the Governor's Early Learning Investment Commission.

Steve Wray received an M.S. in Public Management and Policy from Carnegie Mellon University and an A.B. from Duke University.
