

Bruce M. Bartels
Former President
WellSpan Health

Bruce Bartels is past president of WellSpan Health; a health services organization consisting of a home health agency, a primary care based medical group with more than 500 providers, three hospitals, a health plan, two medical malls, and several other health related activities.

From 1988 to 1998, Mr. Bartels was President of York Health System and York Hospital. Prior to coming to Pennsylvania, he was Chief Operating Officer of the Medical Center Hospital of Vermont for eight years. Earlier in his career, he held positions at Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis and the University of Chicago Hospital and Clinics.

Mr. Bartels is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives, is past Chairman of the Hospital and Health Systems Association of Pennsylvania Board of Directors, and serves on the boards of several local and regional not-for-profit organizations. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and received a Master of Business Administration from the University of Chicago. He has been a member of the Early Learning Investment Commission since 2008.

He is currently involved in several community-based organizations related to his areas of interest.