

Peter P. Brubaker
President, Hammer Creek Enterprises LLC
Former President & CEO, Susquehanna Media Company

Peter Brubaker is President of Hammer Creek Enterprises, a company he founded in 2005. Hammer Creek provides capital and financial advisory services to growth-oriented middle market companies in the mid-Atlantic region. In addition, he serves as a Director of Snyder's-Lance, Inc., and Alcoil USA, LLC.

From 1995 until 2005, Mr. Brubaker was president and CEO of Susquehanna Media Co. He retired as a full-time employee in February 2005 but continued as a consultant to the company until it was sold in May 2006. At the time of his retirement, Susquehanna was the nation's 11th largest radio broadcaster and the 17th largest cable television operator. Prior to 1995, Mr. Brubaker was Vice President of Finance and CFO of Susquehanna Media's parent, the Susquehanna Pfaltzgraff Co.

Mr. Brubaker has been an active advocate for improving the school readiness of Pennsylvania's children as a founding Director of "Focus on Our Future"; as Chairman of Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children; and as a member of the Pennsylvania Business Community's Early Care and Education Task Force, the Advisory Council for Pennsylvania's Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) and the Pre-K Counts Executive Leadership Council. In 2008 he was appointed to serve on Pennsylvania's Early Learning Investment Commission.

Mr. Brubaker serves as the Vice Chair of the York County Economic Development Alliance, is a board member and committee chair of the Strand-Capital Performing Arts Center. He also serves on the board for WellSpan Specialty Services, and is a finance committee member of the York Day Nursery. Brubaker previously served on the following boards; National Cable & Telecommunications Association, Cable Television Laboratories, and The Pennsylvania Cable Network. He was the board chair for Martin Library and the past president of Historic York Inc.

Mr. Brubaker holds a B.A. in Economics from Wesleyan University and M.B.A. from Harvard Business School.
